

SCOTT BAUGHREPUBLICAN

Orange County Business Owner

Congress is broken.

Washington politicians are too busy fighting they overlook the cost of gas or groceries. They are too busy spending taxpayer dollars that they can't see the homeless, housing, or border crises. They are so busy protecting criminals that they don't feel the pain of crime victims.

I don't expect them to agree on everything. I expect them to work together on things they can agree upon, like keeping our communities protected and our families safe.

As an Orange County business owner, government must get out of the way of our small businesses. I'll fight against burdensome economic policies and runaway spending that causes inflation and kills jobs.

In my own family, I have seen the devastating results of addiction and mental health. Addiction is a crisis impacting millions of Americans. We are at our strongest when we can care for our most vulnerable. We must also end the fentanyl epidemic, killing an entire generation.

As volunteer Chairman of the Orange County Gang Reduction Intervention Partnership, I help law enforcement keep kids out of gangs. I stand with law enforcement and will always advocate for the equipment, technology, and training necessary for our police to be the best in the nation.

As a father, husband, and 33-year district resident, I care deeply about our community. I'll work to get our economy back on track, secure our border, protect our neighborhoods, and expand our freedoms. For more information, visit www.BaughForCongress.com.
