

JACK DANIEL FENNEL
Construction Project Manager

Elect Jack Daniel Fennell to the NOCCCD Board of Trustees!

Jack has been a proud member of his community for his entire life, taking every opportunity to advocate for his neighbors. He is a former Anaheim Youth Commissioner, an avid volunteer, and a vital member of his local neighborhood watch.

As a project manager for a construction company, Jack will provide valuable insights and skills to the NOCCCD, which is continuously growing, whether renovating campus buildings or building new ones. As a former student of Cypress and Fullerton College, Jack is well-aware of the issues facing students, and is running in order to make the campuses more welcoming to help increase enrollment and improve the district's overall budget outlook.

The NOCCCD oversees the campuses of North Orange Continuing Education, Fullerton College, and Cypress College. As a businessman, scholar, and public servant, Jack Fennell will proudly and devotedly represent the residents of Anaheim, Buena Park, Fullerton, and Stanton.

Jack's objectives as your trustee will include promoting a strong, unclouded focus on education and success, while also fostering a strong and safe campus community. Jack also aims to foster fiscal responsibility and account for the spending of your tax dollars, ensuring every cent goes toward education and safety.
