

FARNAZ PARDASANI
Nonprofit Board Member

Farnaz is a parent, former PTA president, board member of our local Education Foundation, and a trained expert in improving businesses, budgets, and organizations.

She will solve the challenges facing our schools:

Farnaz has three children in district schools, one at each level. She understands the challenges facing parents and is best positioned to find solutions.

Farnaz is an expert in improving organizations. She is a local leader and volunteer in our schools, but also comes from the world of Business and Management Consulting (advising Fortune 100 companies) at Deloitte Consulting and IBM. She will bring much needed financial and management experience to our schools' $100M budget.

Farnaz has a decade-long track record of driving excellence and innovation (McGaugh PTA President, School Site Council, District Advisory Committee, Board Member of the Los Alamitos Education Foundation). She brings the credibility and network to meaningfully drive change and challenge the status quo.

Her campaign focuses on four core areas:

Enhancing Academic Achievement

Strengthening STEM Programming – especially at Elementary levels

Incorporating Parent Perspectives and Values into Decision Making

Optimizing Management and Financial Practices to put more Resources into our Classrooms
