

SEAN THOMAS

As Treasurer of the City of Brea, I will work diligently to protect, preserve, and maintain intact, cash, investments and other assets placed in trust with the Treasurer on behalf of the residents of Brea. I will be dedicated to the highest ideals of honor, integrity and objectivity in all public and professional relationships, and function within existing legal guidelines. I will, always, maintain personal conduct in such a manner as will enhance the stature of Treasurer and reflect positively upon the City of Brea.

I am qualified for this position based on my professional background and qualifications:

BS Degree, University of Maryland in Business Administration

Vice President, Human Relations for multi-billion-dollar corporation

President of Insurance Premium Auditing Company

Treasurer for multimillion dollar Orange County Nonprofit

Advisory board member of major international bank

Orange County Commissioner

Brea Envisions Committee member.

Member of the board of trustees of my church, with major financial responsibilities

I have been a resident of Brea for 18 years and am very engaged with city programs, activities, and governmental affairs.
