

BUTCH TWININGAGE: 67

Businessman/Huntington Beach Commissioner

Growing up in Huntington Harbor, I've lived the Surf City Dream. I went on to serve in the United States Air Force, grew my family business, and currently sit as a City Commissioner. I am running for City Council now because we need leaders ready to protect Huntington Beach.

As Chairman of the Planning Commission, I've made it clear that I will protect our neighborhoods from being overrun by low-income, high-density apartments. I will never let mandates from Sacramento politicians turn Surf City into San Francisco.

I want to bring a business-like approach to City Hall. That starts with making sure we always maintain a balanced budget. And that also means making sure we have the resources to provide our Police Officers and Firefighters with the tools necessary to protect our neighborhoods.

My ideas are simple. I'm running for City Council to:

- Prioritize Public Safety
- Fight High-Density Mandates
- Further Reduce Homelessness
- Maintain a Balanced Budget
- Enhance our City Libraries

I'm proud that my campaign is supported by proven Huntington Beach leaders. That includes Mayor Gracey Van Der Mark, Mayor Pro Tem Pat Burns, Councilman Tony Strickland, Councilman Casey McKeon, Senator Janet Nguyen, Assemblywoman Diane Dixon, Congresswoman Michelle Steel, Scott Baugh, Congressional Candidate 47th District, Max Ukropina, and the Huntington Beach Republican Women's Federation.

I hope to earn your support, too.
