

JULIE TRAN

Small Business Owner

Our city is broken.

Instead of finding solutions, our city council is busy bickering, playing political games and granting themselves massive pay raises.

Meanwhile, robberies and assaults are skyrocketing, and our homeless filled streets are riddled with potholes.

My name is Julie Tran. I am a small business owner, a longtime resident, and Santa Ana College graduate. I know and love our city and understand its potential.

I'm running for city council because we deserve leaders who will fight for us.

My Common-Sense Agenda

Public Safety: Ensuring our community's safety is the government's top priority.

Deal with Homelessness: Santa Ana should not be a dumping ground for the county's homeless population. Every city needs to do their part.

Support for Small Businesses: They are the backbone of our economy and key to the American Dream.

More Parks: Families need safe and welcoming spaces now.

Affordable Homeownership: Building ownership housing will help families build wealth, escape poverty, and invest in our community.

No New Taxes: With the highest sales tax in the county, we can't afford more taxes.

Santa Ana is at a crossroads. Join me to get our city back on the right track.
