

TRI TAREPUBLICAN

California Assemblyman/Businessman

My American Dream began when my family immigrated from Saigon in search of freedom. The adjustment wasn't easy, but through hard work, I became the first in my family to graduate from college.

In 2012, I was honored to become the first Vietnamese-American elected mayor. As Mayor, I focused on the basics—public safety, fixing roads, and improving quality of life—and delivered real results.

Four years ago, I ran for Assembly to help more families achieve a middle-class life, prioritize public safety, and give back to the country that gave me so much.

As your Assemblyman, I have passed legislation to strengthen public safety and push back against pro-criminal policies coming out of Sacramento. When insurance companies wrongly denied care to autistic children, I authored tough legislation and overcame a Governor's veto to protect families.

I have consistently stood up for taxpayers and opposed tax increases. California is already the highest-taxed state, and family budgets are stretched thin. I also authored legislation to rein in rising utility costs, fought corruption, and secured $1 million in new park funding for our district.

I have lived in this district for over 20 years, and my wife and I are proud to have raised our daughters here.

I am honored to be endorsed by the Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association Pac, California Association of Highway Patrolmen, California Professional Firefighters, and California Women's Leadership Association.

I respectfully ask for your vote.
