BRENDA GLIM
Business Woman

Brenda has proudly called Huntington Beach home for 37 years. She raised her family here and is now helping raise her grandchildren. She is committed to keeping Huntington Beach safe, strong, and full of opportunity for future generations.

Brenda began her career with the General Accountability Office and the United States Air Force, where she developed a strong respect for accountability and public service. She later worked at McDonnell Douglas on advanced space technology and managed multi-million-dollar projects for companies including Experian and IBM, overseeing budgets, timelines, and results.

For 22 years, Brenda has been an active member of the Rotary Club of Huntington Beach, serving as President, Secretary, Treasurer, Assistant District Governor, and currently Membership Chair. Her Rotary service reflects her long-standing commitment to community, leadership, and collaboration.

Brenda is running for City Council to focus on practical priorities: maintaining infrastructure, protecting public services, respecting taxpayers, and restoring trust in local government.
HB First. Politics Last.
