

DAN JACOBSON

Attorney

I've practiced law for 35 years. During much of that time I also taught law. Throughout my career, I've gained the key to understanding the law. That key is – Wisdom.

On November 12, 2019, Congressman Lou Correa gave a speech on the Floor of the House of Representatives "Honoring Legendary Orange County Attorney Dan Jacobson." Congressman Correa said, "Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Dan Jacobson, a prominent attorney in Orange County [and] longtime defender of the voiceless."

In the early 1980s I was homeless for a brief time. When down, I got up and fought back against my circumstances. And I ended up a successful lawyer, being praised on the Floor of the House. Through it all I gained, and continue to pursue, knowledge and experience, which mixed together produce – Wisdom.

I understand crime victims – I was one, staring down the barrel of a robber's pistol. I've represented people from all walks of life. For five years I volunteered as a Judge Pro Tem at the Santa Ana courthouse dispensing justice with thoughtfulness, toughness, and – Wisdom.

I'm married to my lifelong best friend, Lyly. I've led Boards of Directors of non-profits as varied as the Richard and Donna O'Neill Land Conservancy and the Brodie Dance Company.

I'm serving my 2nd term as Commissioner on the California Accountancy Board. I was appointed to that seat by Speaker of the Assembly Emeritus Anthony Rendon. In that position, I use – Wisdom.

I was recognized by preeminent Civil Rights Leader John Lewis when Congressman Lewis sent me his book, The March. Congressman Lewis' inscription reads, "To Dan Jacobson, Thank you for all of your great work." Being recognized by John Lewis, demonstrates my – Wisdom.

In the early 2000s Congressman John Garamendi, then California's Insurance Commissioner, appointed me as a Governor of the California Insurance Guarantee Association. Congressman Garamendi saw in me – Wisdom.

I've penned more than 40 scholarly articles in leading legal journals on topics ranging from Indemnity to Grandparents' Visitation Rights. Please see those at www.https://jacobsonforjudge.com/articles/.

On November 9, 2019 the State Senate recognized me with a certificate issued in my honor. Senator Tom Umberg, Chair of the State Senate's Judicial Committee, wrote that I have "passion for civic and legal affairs." That passion is fueled by – Wisdom.

Vote for wisdom; Vote for justice; Vote for Jacobson for judge!
