

AMI S. SAGEL

Judge of the Superior Court

Ami Sagel has dedicated her career to serving and protecting the people of Orange County—and our nation—with integrity, strength, and fairness. As a Superior Court Judge, federal prosecutor, civil litigator, and adoption attorney, she has built a career committed to justice and public service. Ami Sagel has earned endorsements from Sheriff Don Barnes, over 60 Superior Court Judges, Veterans Alliance of Orange County, court employees, bipartisan community leaders, and California's largest law enforcement organization.

Ami Sagel currently serves Orange County as a Superior Court Judge. Previously, as a prosecutor, she helped put dangerous criminals away, handling cases involving sexual exploitation of minors, major fraud, narcotics trafficking, and illegal firearms crimes. She led one of the largest sex trafficking prosecutions, standing up for victims and holding predators accountable.

In recognition of her leadership, Ami Sagel received the FBI's "Exemplary Performance in the Prosecution of Crimes Against Children" Award and the United States Attorney's Office "Victim Witness Assistance Program" Award.

Ami Sagel will uphold the law, protect public safety, and ensure fair and ethical trials for all.

A graduate of the University of Chicago Law School, Ami and her husband are proud parents of children attending local schools. She is invested in our community and serving with integrity.
