

KIMBERLY ANN DAVIS

Small Business Owner/Mother

Kimberly Ann Davis is an Air Force veteran, small business owner, and community advocate committed to restoring accountability, transparency, and trust in Orange County government.

With an MBA and a Master's in Educational Counseling with a PPS Credential, Kimberly has spent her career serving families, children, seniors, and individuals facing mental health and developmental challenges. She understands the real issues residents face because she has worked directly in the community to support those most in need.

Kimberly is running to bring strong, ethical leadership to the Board of Supervisors. Her priorities include improving public safety, expanding access to mental health services, supporting small businesses, and ensuring responsible use of taxpayer dollars. She will advocate for policies that protect children and seniors, strengthen oversight of county systems, and make government more transparent and responsive to the people it serves. Kimberly is a change agent.

Orange County deserves leadership that stands up for families, protects vulnerable residents, and ensures county resources are used effectively and transparently.

Kimberly Davis is committed to building a safer, stronger, and more accountable Orange County for every resident.
