

MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY, 74TH DISTRICT

NAME: EMANUEL PATRASCU PARTY: REPUBLICAN

OCCUPATION: Orange County Business Owner

Sacramento is broken. Badly.

Our taxes are the highest in the nation. A high speed rail "Train to Nowhere" is costing us billions. Convicted felons are being let back out onto the streets before completing their sentences. And here in Orange County, politicians are trying to rip out the fire rings at our local beaches.

The problems of California are problems the politicians have caused. And that's why I'm running for State Assembly.

My name is Emanuel Patrascu. I'm a small business owner, a proud Republican, and proudly not a politician.

I came to America with my family, escaping a totalitarian regime in Romania. My love for this country comes from having seen that the horrors of Communism are very real. Every American should cherish the freedom we're provided.

I worked my way through school, becoming a proud UC graduate. My wife and I settled in Orange County to raise our son and start our lives.

Like any small business owner, I know what it means to balance a budget and cut what's unnecessary. I know how to clean up the mess the politicians have made.

I'll fight to protect Proposition 13, and keep our taxes low. That's why I've signed a pledge to never raise taxes. I'll fight to defund high speed rail for good. And I'll work to make sure our fire rings stay right where they are.

I'll clean up the mess the politicians have made. I'm asking for your vote.

Thank you. www.JoinEmanuel.com
