

DANIEL ORLOWSKI
CITY OF ALISO VIEJO
MEMBER OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Community Volunteer

Aliso Viejo is Orange County's youngest city. Yet we have no shortage of dedicated people, people who have worked hard to create a city that one can be proud to raise a family in, and this great love of community has grown over only a few short years. When I speak to the people of Aliso Viejo I know they are as committed to the future prosperity of this community as I am.

If elected, I vow to work hard to create an open government that is highly accessible, and can adequately address all questions and comments presented to it. I further pledge to reduce wasteful spending. I pledge also, to reduce the efforts of big government to dictate how you run your business, raise your children, or lead your life. I keep these thoughts on my mind, and the well being of our fair city's populace in my heart.

With these tools I promise to be the advocate of every man, women, and child in Aliso Viejo, and to vote for their rights on every issue, every time.
