

MEMBER OF THE STATE ASSEMBLY, 60TH DISTRICT

NAME: DIANE SINGER

OCCUPATION: Educator/Business-Owner

I will be the assembly-member who puts families and children first.

I will protect and empower taxpayers. I will say no to frivolous spending and the unfunded mandates that Washington wants us to pay, mandates that drain our schools, libraries and communities of services in police, fire and public works. I believe that just as our families live within their means, Sacramento must live within its means.

I understand how kids learn, that kids flourish in the basics, art, music and sports; that smaller classes in a safe environment is a top priority. I believe that our children deserve a learner-centered curriculum, meaningful instruction and quality books and supplies.

I believe that we must rebuild the middle class through more jobs, support of small business, protection of property owner rights and limited taxes.

I will protect our quality of life.

That's why I am running for the State Assembly.

I am an educator and community leader working hard to protect children and families. I will fight to keep our streets safe, to improve schools, support public safety and to protect our neighborhoods, our hills, our homes, and our families.

I am a working mom, married twenty years to David, a local chief of police; we live in Anaheim Hills with our two teenage boys. I will always put your children and families first.
